The Resurrection

1 Corinthians 15:35-49

A good lead-in...1 Corinthians 15:12-34 - Now if Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? (13) But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. (14) And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain. (15) We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified about God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised. (16) For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised. (17) And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins, (18) Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. (19) If in Christ we have hope in this life only, we are of all people most to be pitied. (20) But in fact, Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. (21) For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. (22) For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. (23) But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. (24) Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power. (25) For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. (26) The last enemy to be destroyed is death. (27) For "God has put all things in subjection under his feet." But when it says, "all things are put in subjection," it is plain that he is excepted who put all things in subjection under him. (28) When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things in subjection under him, that God may be all in all. (29) Otherwise, what do people mean by being baptized on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized on their behalf? (30) Why are we in danger every hour? (31) I protest, brothers, by my pride in you, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die every day! (32) What do I gain if, humanly speaking, I fought with beasts at Ephesus? If the dead are not raised, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die." (33) Do not be deceived: "Bad company ruins good morals." (34) Wake up from your drunken stupor, as is right, and do not go on sinning. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

15:35 – But someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?"

Two questions – four responses:

1. An illustration from nature (36-38)

You foolish person! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. (37) And what you sow is not the body that is to be, but a bare kernel, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain. (38) But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body.

2. A description of resurrection bodies (39-41)

For not all flesh is the same, but there is one kind for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish. (40) There are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is of one kind, and the glory of the earthly is of another. (41) There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory.

3. A contrast of earthly and resurrection bodies (42-44)

So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable. (43) It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. (44) It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.

4. A reminder of the resurrection of Christ—a prototype for believers (45-49)

Thus, it is written, "The first man Adam became a living being"; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. (46) But it is not the spiritual that is first but the natural, and then the spiritual. (47) The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. (48) As was the man of dust, so also are those who are of the dust, and as is the man of heaven, so also are those who are of heaven. (49) Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the man of heaven.

According to 1 Corinthians 15
Our new bodies will be (v. 42) So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable. Psalm 16:10 – For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol, or let your holy one see corruption. Romans 6:8-9 – Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. (9) We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. Hebrews 9:27 – It is appointed for man to die once
Our new bodies will be
Our Lord's resurrected body gives us a few glimpses of what our resurrected bodies will be like: First and most importantly, the Lord's resurrected body was Luke 24:39 – See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.

Concluding remarks and	d observations about the resurrection of believers
I tell you this, brothers: imperishable. (51) Beho moment, in the twinkling imperishable, and we she mortal body must put on on immortality, then sho death, where is your vic	of resurrection (vs. 50-57) I flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, old! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we go f an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will shall be changed. (53) For this perishable body must in immortality. (54) When the perishable puts on the all come to pass the saying that is written: "Death is ctory? O death, where is your sting?" (56) The sting on the best of God, who gives us the victory through our last.	we shall all be changed, (52) in a sound, and the dead will be raised put on the imperishable, and this imperishable, and the mortal puts swallowed up in victory."
